You can affordably own your own Hyde-Murphy home with all its charming details! You can sit in the dining room window seat or decorate the brick fireplace in the living room. Window placement provides an abundance of natural light and a great view of Ridgway from the living room. And no need to worry about mechanicals with a newer furnace, water heater and electrical. Even the roof is newer. Buying this house can be more affordable than renting. This three bedroom, one bath charmer has great public areas - a welcoming entry with a beveled glass entry door, a living room with a great view and fireplace flanked by windows and a dining room with over head light, wall light sconces and a window seat. Come see!
